

Granite Named One of the World's Most Ethical Companies

Released: 02.25.20

WATSONVILLE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- For the 11th consecutive year, Granite (GVA:NYSE) has been named one of the World's Most Ethical Companies by the Ethisphere Institute.

Granite was chosen as one of the 2020 World's Most Ethical Companies by Ethisphere, a global leader in defining and advancing the standards of ethical business practices, and is among a community of 132 respected honorees who are exemplifying and advancing corporate citizenship, transparency and the standards of integrity.

"We are extremely honored that Granite has once again received this award," said President and CEO James H. Roberts. "Congratulations to all Granite employees for earning this distinction."

"Congratulations to everyone at Granite for earning this recognition," said Ethisphere's Chief Executive Officer, Timothy Erbllich. "This is a moment to acknowledge the leaders working to advance corporate cultures defined by integrity and affirm those companies contributing to broader societal imperatives and the greater good."

Methodology & Scoring

Grounded in Ethisphere's proprietary Ethics Quotient®, the World's Most Ethical Companies assessment process includes more than 200 questions on culture, environmental and social practices, ethics and compliance activities, governance, diversity and initiatives to support a strong value chain. The process serves as an operating framework to capture and codify the leading practices of organizations across industries and around the globe. Best practices and insights from the 2020 honorees will be released in a report and webcast in March and April of this year.

All companies that participate in the assessment process receive an Analytical Scorecard providing them a holistic assessment of where their programs stand against the demanding standards of leading companies.
