

Granite Named “Veterans Employer of the Year”

WATSONVILLE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Granite Construction Incorporated (NYSE:GVA) announced today that it has been named 2015 “Veterans Employer of the Year” by the California Employer Advisory Council. This award recognizes Granite’s programs and policies in support of U.S. veterans in hiring and promotion, as well as employee retention, ongoing training, and benefits.

Granite actively recruits veterans by participation in programs such as Work for Warriors, Honor a Hero, and the California Employment Development Department Workforce Program. Granite also offers competitive employee programs including tuition assistance, leadership training and a mentoring program.

“Veterans bring a wealth of knowledge and skills well-suited to the construction industry,” said Phil DeCocco, Senior Vice President of Human Resources, Granite Construction Incorporated. “This includes not only operations experience, but also understanding the importance of leadership, partnering and selfless service which are in line with Granite’s Core Values and culture.”
