"Sustainability is about more than doing the right thing, it is about doing things the right way," said Granite President and Chief Executive Officer, James H. Roberts. "Our vision for sustainability is embedded in Granite's long history of building with honesty and integrity, and an awareness that what we build impacts generations to come. Granite is built on a solid foundation of ethics and the future needs of our business, our team members, and the communities we serve. We continue this legacy through our enduring commitment to ethical and sustainable business operations."

Sustainability is Granite's strategic approach to managing business with the future in mind: integrating values of social responsibility and environmental stewardship while supporting economic prosperity by building infrastructure that improves quality of life.

The report includes new 2020 objectives and highlights the Company's progress on its sustainability initiatives, including:

- Recognition by the Ethisphere Institute as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies® for 10 years in a row
- Expansion of Granite's ability to provide sustainable infrastructure solutions with the formation of its Water & Mineral Services Group
- Recognition as a Great Place to Work® in 2017-2018
- Lowest OSHA incident rate in the company's history in 2018, in a continuously improving safety record
- Recognition through 14 Quality Awards from the National Asphalt Paving Association (NAPA) in 2018
