

Granite Publishes Annual Sustainability Report

WATSONVILLE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--On Wednesday, April 29, Granite (NYSE:GVA) published its 2025 Sustainability Report, highlighting the company's efforts to create enduring value through social responsibility, environmental stewardship, and dependable governance. "Granite's mission is to provide infrastructure solutions that support more prosperous and resilient communities," said Granite President and Chief Executive Officer Kyle Larkin. "Sustainability is central to this mission. Our leadership in sustainability supports the successful execution of our business strategies and drives value creation."

Granite aligns its reporting with standard sustainability reporting frameworks, selecting industry-specific metrics that align with stakeholder expectations and reflect material impacts relevant to its operations. In addition to providing progress updates on sustainability objectives, the report reviews the company's efforts in key areas, including safety and health, community engagement, ethics and compliance, resilience and energy, and waste management.

"Granite's Sustainability Strategic Plan centers on leveraging sustainability as a competitive advantage," explained Sustainability Director Raven Adams. "The theme of this report—Operational Impact—reflects the transition from building companywide programs to executing improvements in operations, with sustainability champions leading local initiatives that drive value in their part of the business."

Highlights from the 2025 report include:

- Recognition by Newsweek as one of America's Most Responsible Companies for 2026, as well as one of America's Greatest Companies for 2026
- Safety record reflecting the safest year in Granite's history
- Commitment of $16 million companywide to improve energy efficiency at materials facilities
- Companywide expansion of energy efficiency and resilience initiatives led by local sustainability champions
- Improved assessment of climate risks, including the company's first scenario analysis
- Diamond Achievement Sustainable Commendations from the National Asphalt Paving Association (NAPA) received by 27 asphalt plants
- Sustainability Value Add (SVA) highlights providing examples of how Granite creates value and positive impact for clients, employees, and communities
