

Granite's Southeast Home Market Expansion

WATSONVILLE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Granite (NYSE:GVA) continues to expand its home market strategy in the Southeast through various projects, leveraging its recent acquisitions of Lehman-Roberts, Memphis Stone & Gravel (MSG), and Dickerson & Bowen Inc. (D&B).

The following projects demonstrate versatility in the construction and materials industry in the region:

- Olive Branch Airport taxiway rehabilitation, Mississippi: Lehman-Roberts was recently awarded this project which consists of repairing and improving the existing asphalt pavement on a portion of the taxiway. They are calling it a "rehabilitation" of the taxiway, which consists of approximately 2,750 tons of hot mix asphalt (HMA). The estimated completion date is August 2025.
- Mississippi Department of Transportation (MDOT) Tunica County US 61 from Clayton to State Aid Road 72: Lehman-Roberts kicked off this project in September 2024, which includes Scrub Sealing & Overlaying approximately 10 miles of US 61 from Clayton to State Aid Road 72. Lehman-Roberts will produce 34,000 tons of HMA, and MSG will supply 20,000 tons of material for shoulder gravel. Work on this project began in August 2024 and is set for completion in July 2025.
- MDOT Claiborne County: D&B will overlay approximately 19 miles of SR 547 from the Copiah County Line to US 61 in Port Gibson. D&B will produce approximately 22,500 tons of HMA to complete the project. In addition, D&B's Brookhaven plant will supply approximately 1,800 tons of Class 5, Group D Granular material. The project is projected to start in late October 2024 and is scheduled to be completed in October 2025.

"We are excited to announce these new contract awards," said Patrick Nelson, Granite Vice President of Regional Operations. "These projects not only enhance our construction backlog but also boost our asphalt and aggregate materials businesses. These new awards reflect our ongoing dedication to providing top-notch construction services to our clients and support our mission of serving our communities and improving their infrastructure."
