

Michael F. Donnino Elected to ARTBA's Executive Committee

WATSONVILLE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Granite Construction Incorporated announced today that Senior Vice President

Michael F. Donnino was named as an executive committee officer for the American Road & Transportation Builders Association (ARTBA). A member since 1982, Granite has been a supporter of ARTBA's mission to aggressively grow and protect transportation infrastructure investment to meet the public and business demands for safe and efficient travel.

"We're very pleased that Mike is joining the ARTBA leadership team at this critical time," said ARTBA Chairman Steve Wright, president and CEO of Wright Brothers Construction. "Decisions made at the federal level over the next several years will go a long way in determining what the future transportation construction market in the U.S. will look like. Having Mike's passion, drive and business savvy on our team is a real asset."

A total of 14 officers were nominated by the association's Nominating and Leadership Development Committee and approved by the full ARTBA membership. ARTBA has more than 5,000 members and is one of the largest transportation construction trade associations in the United States. In addition to

Mr. Donnino,

Steve McGough, chief operating officer of HCSS and

Scott Cassels, president of Kiewit Infrastructure Group, Incorporated and executive vice president of Kiewit Corporation were the new officers elected this year.
