Granite's Pat Kelly Elected President of AGC of California for 2025

WATSONVILLE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Granite (NYSE:GVA) Vice President of Operational Excellence, Pat Kelly, has been elected president of the Associated General Contractors (AGC) of California for the year 2025. This appointment recognizes Pat's extensive experience and dedication to the construction industry.

Pat Kelly, who has been with Granite for more than four decades, has held various leadership roles within the company, demonstrating exceptional commitment to excellence and innovation. As president of AGC of California, Kelly will lead the organization in its mission to advocate for the construction industry, promote best practices, and support the professional development of its members.

"We are excited to welcome Pat Kelly as our new president," said Peter Tateishi, AGC of California Chief Executive Officer. "His decades of experience within the construction industry and his many years of involvement with AGC of California make him poised to take on the role of president, guiding our association and driving the mission forward."

"We are proud to see Pat take on this significant role," said Kyle Larkin, Granite President and Chief Executive Officer. "His leadership and vision will contribute to the continued success and growth of AGC of California and the construction industry as a whole."
